Delivery - cattle to be at specified meat works the day before slaughter.
Curfews vary from plant to plant. Specific curfews apply for EU cattle arrivals at all plants. Failure to meet these curfews without prior notice will result in the cattle being made ineligible for EU production. Specific details of plant curfews can be sourced from the vendor's Teys cattle buyer or livestock office.
Payment to be made to above vendor within 5 - 12 Business Days of slaughter. All cattle are sold on basis of Owners Risk.
The Vendor/Supplier/Seller/Authorised Person (hereafter "Vendor") warrants that stock listed on this agreement are free from mortgage or any encumbrance.
The contract is subject to the deduction of livestock slaughter levy in accordance with the Cattle Transaction Levy Act 1990.
The Vendor gives their permission and has requested the Buyer to issue recipient created tax invoices for Supplies the Vendor/Supplier makes in this agreement and the Vendor confirms that they are registered for GST and will not issue a taxable invoice for the transaction. Recipient Created Tax Invoices (RCTI) will not be issued when any of the RCTI requirements are no longer met.
The Buyer is registered for GST and will advise Vendor when it ceases to be registered for GST.
Owners Risk means that the sale and payment by the Buyer for the cattle is conditional on there being no outbreak or suspected outbreak of Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy or Foot and Mouth Disease in Australia after the date of the contract or the carcasses not being condemned at slaughter / boning, or rejected for export by authorised meat inspection staff. If any of these events occur the Buyer shall be entitled to terminate the contract and the Buyer will not be required to make payment to the Vendor for the cattle or provide the Vendor any compensation in respect of cattle slaughtered. Upon termination the Vendor shall be entitled to the return, at its own cost, of cattle not slaughtered.
By signing this document I declare that I have read and understood the Teys Australia (Teys) / Livestock Production Assurance (LPA) Vendor Animal Welfare Requirements and agree to abide by these standards for all cattle consigned to Teys. A copy of the animal welfare requirements are available at teysgroup.com/au/wp-content/uploads/2020/11/Teys-AW-Policy-4-Nov-2020.pdf
The sale is subject to the Vendor being LPA accredited or provisionally accredited and providing us with an LPA National Vendor Declaration.
All cattle must have an NLIS device. Rumen bolus cattle will not be accepted. EU accredited cattle must also have any other tags as required by regulations.
The Vendor is responsible for arranging the transport of the livestock to the Buyer unless otherwise agreed by both parties in writing. The Vendor agrees that when contracting a carrier to transport the livestock to the Buyer, the Vendor will ensure that the carrier so far as reasonably practicable, complies with the Heavy Vehicle National Law and the supporting regulations (HVNL). The Vendor agrees to immediately notify the Buyer if the Vendor believes the carrier has caused a breach or is likely to cause a breach of the HVNL as well as, make alternative arrangements with the carrier to avoid such a breach and where necessary modify the delivery of the livestock in consultation with the Buyer. If the Buyer believes that the carrier has breached the HVNL, the Buyer will notify the Vendor of the suspected breach.
By signing below both the Buyer and the Vendor agree to be bound by this contract, except where the performance by the Buyer of any obligation under this Agreement is prevented by reason of an event of Force Majeure, then the Buyer will be excused from and will not be liable for non-performance of that obligation to the extent that performance is so prevented. Force Majeure means any event or circumstance not within the control of the Buyer and which by the exercise of reasonable skill and care but excluding any measures which are not economically feasible the Buyer is not able to prevent or overcome.
A copy of the Teys' Privacy Policies are available on the Teys Australia website at teysgroup.com/au, or a copy may be requested from Teys' Corporate Office (PH: 07 3198 9000).
